

HOMICIDE VICTIM'S FLYER

ANTONIO JOHNSON

On March 26 2015, around 9 p.m. in the 3600 block of Tholozan Ave. someone climbed onto a basement window ledge and started firing shots into the side window of the house. The victim 11-year-old, Antonio Johnson, was doing homework at the computer, when he was struck in the head. Police do not believe the boy was the intended target. There were eight other people in the house at the time of the shooting. Police believe this shooting was connected to a different shooting earlier in the day.
