

HOMICIDE VICTIM'S FLYER

James Turman

On March 30 2014, at 2:00 pm District Officers responded to the scene and located victim James Turman lying in the reclined front passenger's seat of a vehicle parked at 8933 Riverview Blvd in a 1980's Chevy Iroc Camaro. The victim was unconscious and sustained multiple puncture wounds to both legs and his abdomen. An initial scene investigation indicated that the victim parked at this location, when he was approached by the suspect. An argument ensued and suspect shot the victim with a "dark colored" hand gun. The suspect then fled southwest from the location, on foot.
